Berlin based multi-talented musician Gunilla was born in the north of Germany but grown up on the tip of Berlin. As the youngest of six siblings, four of whom are musicians, she did not have an easy way to be recognized. But through her own way of creating music, she managed to develop her very own magic sound already at an early stage.

With her captivating and radiant stage presence, she sweeps the audience away and takes them on a journey of their own. She intuitively creates sounds to every mood of herself. Building a whole liveset in a week is not unnormal. So, her sound and performances develop every time in a way adapted to her actual feelings and settings. The Gunilla genre moves from minimalistic to deep often experimental with a luscious baseline.

She sings in her mother language

(German), inspired by Kurt Tucholsky or curious scenes in Berlin.
