Since childhood, beats and rhythm have been Lily's constant companions. Growing up and playing drums, punk and hard rock were the most influential music genres for the Munich native and this can be heard in her bass-heavy and invigorating music.

Since 2017 she mixes dark disco, deep house, synth wave and EBM. Thereby she is technically adept and challenges her audience with surprising twists in the set to a personal development. That's also why Lily Lillemor is holding a DJ-residency at Munich's club instance Harry Klein. Her fine sense of rhythm and her empathy for the dancefloor make Lily's sets a little educational journey. Listen for yourself!
